So, it really is noon, right? The sun didn't simply come up earlier today?
Yes, AJ. I know it's different, but Celestia made it clear that all timezones were recalibrated after yesterday's early night.
Does that mean we get an extra day this week or something?
I don't think so.

...and so the muffin says, "I did it for no reason! I'm fat! Get it Dashie?
D'you get it? Reason? Instead of reason?
Because he's a raisin muffin?
Yeah, I get it. I get it the first three times you told me.
Oh, hey guys!

You two seem to be having fun today.
Yep! I've been keeping Dashie's spirits up with jokes!
Pastry based humor, I heard. How are you feeling, Dash? Better?
Much better, thanks. Good night's with no nightmares? It does wonders.
That's great to hear! I think that goes for all of us, really.
By the way, Fluttershy wanted to give you something.

We found it under a dresser last night, and Twilight said it belonged to you.
She insisted that she be the one to put it on you...
Oh, the necklace... thanks guys.
The necklace! That's right, I gave that to you! Good thing we found it, right?
I know you don't really like jewelry, Dash, but it does look nice on you.
Anyway, we're all here to welcome you back home! Now that everything's normal...
HEY, WAIT!

We can't just go home! Not after all that's happened! We need to make this day special! We need to do something! Or a lot of things!
What exactly did you have in mind then? I mean, you literally just recovered from being in the hospital...
That's what I'm talking about! I've been in there for three days! I know exactly what I'd do today!
So... what then?
Heh, you'll see!

All they give you in the hospital is soggy veggies and Jello. Which is okay, I guess, but I've been craving ice cream more than anything. After that, who knows? We can do whatever!

It's a really nice day out, and it would be a shame to waste it! Like I said, we can do anything! All that matters is that we do it together.

I'm just happy that we're still friends after all this scary stuff happened. We'll stay friends forever, right?

After all, we've gone through more things together than most ponies. I kind of knew that everything would be all right in the end. I guess I was right! So let's go celebrate! Let's make this day count! Because we're going to have a lot more adventures, and they start right now!
